ATU Makes Historic Move to New Headquarters

Establishes New Conference Center in Silver Spring, MD

A new era for the Amalgamated Transit Union/ATU begins as international headquarters has moved from Washington, DC, to the former AFL-CIO's National Labor College, in Silver Spring, MD. It is only the third location of the union's international headquarters in its 123-year history.

The ATU has also established a new conference center on the campus to train future generations of leaders in the labor and progressive movements at the state-of-the-art facility.

The new address for the ATU International headquarters will be:
